

James R. Carruth, Ph.D.
University of Memphis
Division of Public and Nonprofit
Administration
Memphis, TN 38152

Education

Ph.D. December 2002, University of Mississippi

- Major Field – Political Science

MBA, 1984, Marymount University of Virginia

- Emphasis in strategic planning and marketing

Post-masters work, 1977-79, George Washington University and George Mason University

- Fifteen hours graduate work in adult education
- Emphasis in educational systems design
- Course work under auspices of the Defense Intelligence College

MPA, 1968, University of Colorado

- Emphasis in comparative public administrative systems

BS, 1960, University of Memphis

- Major - Geography
- Minors - Political Science and History

Academic Experience

2001-2006

- Instructor, Division of Public and Nonprofit Administration, University of Memphis
- Instructor, Tennessee Board of Regents On-Line Degree Program
- Adjunct Professor, Department of National Security Decision Making, College of Continuing Education, Naval War College, Newport, RI.

1999-2000

- Visiting Professor, Division of Public Administration, University of Memphis
- Adjunct Professor, Department of National Security Decision Making, College of Continuing Education, Naval War College, Newport, RI

1998-1999

- Interim Administrative Coordinator, MPA and MA in Political Science programs, University of Memphis

1997-1998

Adjunct Instructor in Political Science, University of Mississippi

- Government and Politics of Latin America Undergraduate
- American Government Undergraduate

1991-1999

University of Memphis, Adjunct Professor in Political Science

- American Government Undergraduate
- International Relations Undergraduate
- Comparative Politics Undergraduate
- U.S National Security Policy Undergraduate/upper division
- Post-Soviet Foreign Policy Undergraduate/upper division
- Modern Political Thought Undergraduate

2000 - 2006

University of Memphis, Instructor, Division of Public and Nonprofit Administration

- Public Administration Undergraduate
- Political and Legal Foundations of Fire Undergraduate [Fire Program]
- Protection
- Political Statistics Undergraduate/upper division and Graduate level
- Public Personnel Management Graduate [MPA]
- Comparative Public Administration. Graduate [MA/MPA]
- Research Methods in Public Administration Graduate [MPA]
- Administrative Ethics and Practices Graduate [MPA]
- Contemporary Perspectives in P.A. Graduate [MPA]
- Labor Relations in the Public Sector Graduate [MPA]
- Conduct Division classes/graduate seminars at University locations in Millington and Jackson, TN.

2000-2006

Regents On-Line Degree Program

- Developed and continue to teach two undergraduate Public Administration courses in this program.
- Developed one of the initial courses in the program.

2003 – 2006

University College/Division of Public and Nonprofit Administration

- Serve as the Division manager for PADM involvement in the Fires Services Program

Community Research and Outreach

- 1996: Shelby County Assessor Office Study- presented at ASPA, 1966.
- 1995: Shelby County At-Risk Homeless Study
- 1994-1995: Homeless Assessment Study - Memphis, Tennessee
- 1995: Conflict Resolution Seminars - Shelby County Government (with Thomas Barth, Ph.D.)

Professional Organizations

- Pi Sigma Alpha – National Political Science Honor Society (1968)
- Pi Alpha Alpha – National Honor Society for Public Affairs and Administration

American Society for Public Administration (ASPA)

- Chapter President 2005-2006

Professional/Private Sector Experience

- 1984-1991: Senior Analyst, Foreign Systems Research Center, SAIC
- Involved in substantive research and analysis on a range of topics dealing with the political, economic, social and military issues within former Soviet Union.
- Research required extensive use of both original Russian language and translated source materials.

Military Experience

1960-1984: United States Air Force

- Retired Lt. Colonel, Regular Air Force with over twenty-three years service
- Operational assignments at Squadron and Wing Level
- Staff Assignments at Air Force Training Command and Headquarters/USAF [Air Force Intelligence and Project CHECKMATE] and Joint Staff Assignment with DIA [Defense Intelligence College]
- Academic-related military assignments included:
 - Technical instructor, Basic Air Intelligence Officer Course: photogrammetry and reconnaissance systems
 - Program Manager, Air Force Intelligence Technical Training, Headquarters, Air Training Command
 - Faculty Chair and professor of management, Management Systems faculty, the Defense Intelligence College, Defense Intelligence Agency

Professional Military Education

- Air War College, 1976, correspondence
- Industrial College of the Armed Forces, 1973, correspondence
- Air Command and Staff College, 1972, correspondence
- Squadron Officers School, 1969, correspondence